Education

2008-Present

University of Teesside

Web and Multimedia Design BA (Hons)

I am competent in the front-end development of informative online applications. I have gained valuable knowledge concerning the integration of multiple media formats to devise a suitable product for a specific demographic. I hold increased competence with hand coding but yet have maintained a strong knowledge of industry standard software packages. I look to further my knowledge of CMS operations in e-commerce and designing for mobile technologies.
